AFO

C emphasizes durability, high bandwidth, and compliance with global standards, with production facilities in Umm al-Quwain and headquarters in Abu Dhabi. 3. Global Emirates Cables & Systems Industries (GEC) Founded in 2015, GEC provides a wide range of optical fiber cables for outdoor, aerial, and indoor applications.

They offer customized solutions and end-to-end services, supported by advanced production equipment and experienced technical personnel, catering to the Middle East, Asia, and Africa markets. 4.

DME Prolink DM

E Prolink, part of ECS Global Wire and Cable, has been operating since 1984. They manufacture optical fiber cables, patch panels, keystone jacks, and related accessories. Their products meet ISO/IEC, ANSI/TIA, UL, and Intertek standards, ensuring high quality for global applications.

5.

HELUKABEL HELUKABE

L provides a broad portfolio of fiber optic cables, data cables, and coaxial cables. They are ISO9001 certified and test all products according to national and international standards, serving telecom, industrial, and data center applications across the Middle East.

Additional Notes

These companies offer both single-mode and multi-mode fiber cables, armored and unarmored options, and solutions for indoor and outdoor installations. Many suppliers provide customized cable solutions to meet specific project requirements, including high tensile strength, fire safety compliance, and long-distance transmission capabilities. Fiber optic cables in the UAE are widely available through direct manufacturer sales, distributors, and online platforms like Amazon.ae for smaller-scale or consumer applications.

These providers collectively form the backbone of the UAE's optical fiber infrastructure, supporting telecom networks, data centers, and large-scale smart city projects.
